

City of Kerrville
800 Junction Highway
Kerrville, Texas 78028-5069
830.258.1112 (O)
mindy.wendele@kerrvilletx.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Movies in the Park

Kerrville- The City of Kerrville is pleased to announce Movies in the Park to be held on Friday, October 19th at the Kerrville-Schreiner Park Amphitheater located at 2385 Bandera Hwy. This is the final out of four for the 2012 movies series sponsored by The Bosworth Company. Enjoy the fall evening with an outdoor movie and fresh complimentary popcorn.

The movie will begin at 7:00 p.m. or dark. This 2008 PG-13 Rated movie is based on the wildly popular book by Stephenie Meyer about the extraordinary romance between Bella Swan and vampire Edward Cullen. Join us for this special presentation of "how it all began" before the much anticipated 5th Installment Breaking Dawn Part 2 hits theaters in November.

Load up the car with blankets or lawn chairs for seating and a flashlight to enjoy this free evening outside at the movies. Sodas, bottled water and candy will be available for sale for $1.00. Please remember that glass containers and smoking are not permitted in the park. No registration required. Entry to the park and movie is free.

For additional information contact Mindy Wendele, Director of Business Programs at 830.258.1112 or visit the city's website at www.kerrvilletx.gov.

###

The City of Kerrville Presents

MOVIES IN THE PARK

Sponsored by

THE BOSWORTH
Company

DATE: October 19, 2012

TIME: 7 p.m. or dark

WHERE: Kerrville-Schreiner
Park Amphitheater
2385 Bandera Hwy

FEE: FREE!

RATING: PG-13
Parental Guidance Suggested

Join us for this special presentation of "how it all began" before the much anticipated 5th installment Breaking Dawn Part 2 hits theaters in November.

Load up the car with the Twilight fans, blankets, and a flashlight for an evening outside at the movies.

Candy and drinks for $1.

Parks & Recreation Department

(830) 257-7300

www.kerrvilletx.gov

